Like many of my colleagues, I voted for the original emergency timber salvage provisions because I believe that salvage logging, when used properly, can be an important tool in forest management. Unfortunately, I am disappointed with the implementation of the law and have come to realize it was too broadly written.

I am concerned that waiving the environmental laws that would ordinarily apply to timber sales increases the strain timber, in general, have on the environment.

I am also concerned that there may not be the economic benefits to salvage sales that we had hoped. While I understand it is the environmental regulations and analyses that are blamed for much of the added costs to timber sales, and that by waiving these requirements the sales will be more economical, I am concerned that taxpayers will still lose money on the sales.

For these reasons, I would have voted for the Furse amendment to the Interior appropriations bill.

TRIBUTE TO POLICE CHIEF JOE SULLIVAN OF FERNDALE, MI

HON. SANDER M. LEVIN

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 25, 1996

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, Police Chief Joe Sullivan of Ferndale, MI will retire on June 30, 1996 after almost 27 years with the Ferndale Police Department.

Joe Sullivan has been an exceptional law enforcement officer. From his early days as a patrolman, as the youngest captain in the history of the Ferndale Police Department and finally to his service as chief of police, he has had a distinguished and rewarding career.

His approach toward law enforcement is rooted in his family, his commitment to community and respect for his colleagues. Joe Sullivan's career in law enforcement has spanned three decades—an era of major change in the nature of law enforcement. The problems experienced in our communities have intensified and have become more complex. They have required new techniques. Joe Sullivan has been successful because he has been a leader in combining sophisticated new methods with some old-fashion, community-based methods.

It has been my pleasure to know Joe Sullivan and to work closely with him on a variety of efforts. 1994, Joe Sullivan spent time helping to provide me the hands of knowledge I needed to make the anti-crime bill more effective for local communities. We worked together, with other chiefs of police in the 12th District and with Attorney General Janet Reno to strengthen the community policing provisions of the bill by allowing communities to work together in multijurisdictional tasks forces. It was an idea sparked by Joe Sullivan and his colleagues and because of them it is law. I was honored to have Joe Sullivan join me for the White House ceremony where President Clinton signed the legislation into law.

Joe Sullivan is a person who combines a direct, no-nonsense approach with a sensitivity to others. He will tell you what's on his mind, while listening to the views of others. And he speaks passionately about what local law enforcement needs to be successful.

Joe Sullivan has won 17 commendations during his career on the Ferndale Police Force. One such distinction emanated from his work as commander of a SWAT intervention that terminated a dangerous hostage situation in 1984.

Joe Sullivan was born and raised in Ferndale. He is a husband of 30 years, a father of two and a grandfather of four. His strong family values are rooted in his Irish heritage.

Joe Sullivan has given his adult career to the safety and security of the citizens of Ferndale. I join them in paying tribute to Joe Sullivan and wishing him health and happiness in his much deserved retirement. Many thanks, Joe, for all of your efforts on our behalf.

CITIZENS CELEBRATE FIRST WARD COMMUNITY CENTER, FWCC OLD TIMERS CLUB

HON. JAMES A. BARCIA

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Tuesday, June 25, 1996

Mr. BARCIA. Mr. Speaker, how well a community does is directly related to the willingness of its people to commit themselves to making their community better. The first ward of Saginaw, MI, has benefited from the commitment of its citizens who, later this week, will be celebrating the 60th anniversary of the First Ward Community Center, and the 50th anniversary of the First Ward Old Timers Club.

More than 60 years ago, a community center was begun at 1013 North 6th Street to improve the neighborhood. Everyone in the community was invited to join in programs that were offered to help individuals, and through that make the first ward as good as it could be. Sixty years ago the center became part of the Welfare League, which predated United Way of Saginaw. In 1944, hands were joined across the community to make a human chain to move two old barracks to the center's current location at 1410 North 12th Street.

Over these many years of making the first ward better and better, the center has offered programs in adult counseling, recreation, preschooling, athletic activities, classroom and library facilities, and many, many memorable moments for the thousands of people who used the First Ward Community Center even just once.

The center has been broadly supported by the community, but not more strongly than by the Old Timers Club, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary. This wonderful group worked to provide support for the center to help the youth of the community. They have done so since their first picnic for youth in 1946, through the annualization of this event, and through the operation of a bingo for the center. The countless and invaluable hours of volunteer service to the center were vital in the growth of the First Ward Community Center and its positive impact on the neighborhood.

Mr. Speaker, when people ask for examples of where local commitment, constant probing for new solutions to problems, and devotion to higher ideals exist, tell them to look no further than the First Ward Community Center and the First Ward Community Center Old Timers

Club of Saginaw, MI. For 60 years the First Ward Community Center has had a positive impact on Saginaw neighborhoods which continues today under the capable leadership of Charles Braddock, executive director, and the board of dedicated community volunteers. I urge all of our colleagues to join me in wishing both of these excellent organizations the very best on their anniversaries, and many more to come.

TRIBUTE TO GIRL SCOUT GOLD AWARD RECIPIENTS

HON. DAVID R. OBEY

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 25, 1996

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, today, I would like to salute two outstanding young women who have been honored with the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. Gold Award by the Indian Waters Girl Scout Council in Eau Claire, WI. They are Carrie Shufelt and Carrie Meyer.

They are being honored for earning the highest achievement award in Girl Scouting. The Girl Scout Gold Award symbolizes outstanding accomplishments in the areas of leadership, community service, career planning, and personal development.

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., an organization serving over 2.6 million girls, has awarded more than 20,000 Girl Scout Gold Awards to Senior Girl Scouts since the inception of the program in 1980. To receive the award, a Girl Scout must fulfill five requirements: earn four interest project patches, earn the Career Exploration pin, earn the Senior Girl Scout Leadership Award project, earn the Senior Girl Scout Challenge, and design and implement a Girl Scout Gold Award project. A plan for fulfilling the requirements of the award is created by the Senior Girl Scout and is carried out through close cooperation between the girl and an adult Girl Scout volunteer.

The earning of the Girl Scout Gold Award is a major accomplishment for these young women, and I believe they should receive the public recognition due them for this significant service to their community and their country.

WHY CONGRESS NEEDS THE MENTAL HEALTH BENEFIT

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Tuesday, June 25, 1996

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I know it is not fashionable to seek perks for Members of Congress, but we desperately, desperately need one—and the country would be better for it if we obtained this benefit for ourselves.

We need the mental health parity amendment, because a majority of the Members are clearly suffering from severe mental disconnect, and as an institution, we are in need of treatment.

I refer, of course, to the insanity of spending long hours trying to pass the Kennedy-Kassebaum amendment to improve health insurance coverage, while we are also about to pass Medicaid budget cuts which will effectively remove health insurance coverage from millions of Americans.
